Buckingham

Eighteen fresh looking young ladies and one young man were here to try public school examinations and their names are as follows: Misses Thelma W. Crews, Edna Simmons, Louise Reynolds, Nannie Harvey, Mattie B. Harvey, Ethleen Maxey, Pauline Patteson, Nellie Johnson, Lizzie Stinson, Gertrude Johnson, Julia M. Spencer Lillian Bryant, Grace Farish, Irene Farish, Olivia M. Spencer, Susie Pierce, Nannie W. Gilliam, Mary W. Baber, and Mr. John Eldridge. There were three colored girls and one colored man who tried the examination. Professor Groseclose and his wife and sister are all excellent teachers and we hope to have them with us in the high school again.

Mr. Elijah Newton issued a warrant which charged Nick Land with having committed a crimnal assault on a lame girl named Mattie Toney, and the case was tried here Saturday before Mr. Newton and two other justices and the accused was found not guilty. Mr. John B. Boatwright appeared for the defense and Col. E. W. Hubbard represented the Commonwealth.

There was a play acted here by local talent on Friday night entitled "Billy's Bungalo" apart from the enjoyment the entertainment gave those who attended a nice show. Proceeds will be expended for the good of the school

Weather conditions change much more rapidly than a weekly newspaper can be circulated and I hope when you read this you will have forgotten the frosts that came last week and will be thankful that floods that have devastated the valleys along the Mississippi river have not reached here. Farmers will realize that the wheat is too far advanced for the first week in May and hope that the cold spell we have had may check the growth of straw and not injure the prospects of grain.

In giving a list of those who tried the examinations here last week I may have omitted some who came to take the reading course.

There was a called meeting of intelligent people from different parts of the county to study plans for the welfare of the county.

Senator Swanson will be invited here to deliver an address on the 26th of May when the high school closes. The school league has in mind several ministers of the gospel one of whom ther will invite to deliver the baccalaureate sermon incident to the closing of the school.

Rev. Charles Martin Barrell preached at St. Andrews church Sunday and gave notice that he would again hold services there on the 2nd Sunday in June.

A man named Fletcher Branch is charged with non-support of his wife in a warrant to be tried at Botton's store on May 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Glover and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Glover visited the home of Dr. Perkins Glover on Sunday. The same day Mr. Hubard Baird came up from Richmond and spent a few hours with his home folks.

Vera

It seems we were a little "too previous" when we made such glowing statements in regard to the "bumper fruit crop" we have had a cold snap since then and the plums, peaches and pears for the most part have gone a glimmering. The prospects for an apple crop are still good.

Mr. Dabney Anderson is getting his lumber together and expects to build him a new home this summer.

Mr. Perry Childers is running a jitney in Lynchburg, we wish him success.

Mr. A. Nutty comb has moved from Caskie to his farm, Wild way, we welcome him in our midst.

Miss Addie Frances Childers, of A. A. H. S., spent the week-end at her home.

Mrs. S. B. Megginson spent the week end at home, but has returned to Lynchburg with her sick baby who does not improve as rapidly as they wish.

Mrs. Charles Grow was called to Roanoke in her professional capacity.

Mrs. R. K. Moss and Mr. F. P. Kinney, of Danville, returned home Friday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kinney.

Mrs. A. C. Menefee, who spent the winter with her niece, Mrs. H. B. Foster, in N. C, is home again.

Magistrate Megginson, seems to be kept pretty busy these days.

Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Christian are the proud parents of a new baby girl—congratulations.

The play at Liberty Chapel high school was a decided success. About $60 was realized.

A veterenary surgeon would do well in this county.

Hixburg

There was quite a large crowd out to hear Mr. Doughling, of the Baptist church preach Sunday and it is supposed that he will accept a call to this field.

Mr J. W. Davis was a recent visitor to Roanoke.

Mr James E. Gray and family, of Richmond, were up to see home folks last week.

On account of illness of both of the teachers at this place the school entertainment announced for Saturday night, May 6th, has been put off until further notice. It looks as if we are going to have the flu epidemic in this neighborhood

Our farmers are busy planting corn and the two row-planter is being used by some of our most progressive young farmers.

We hear that another commissioner has been appointed to survey the route for a road near Mosbys ford, this is the third lot of men summons for this job.

Woodland School

Andersonville, April 25.—A beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs Marion Tandy Jones Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Constance Louise, became the bride of John Coleman Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs Robert Agee Morgan, of Andersonville.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Ruby Jones, and the groom's best man was his brother, Ernest Agee Morgan.

The house was decorated with potted plants and spring flowers. The bride wore a dark blue suit with accessories to match. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Simpson, pastor of the bride and groom. Only the immediate families were present on account of the illness of the bride's grandmother. Our Merchants!

The growth and development of any community depend to a large extent upon the character and progressiveness of its merchants.

A city chooses its merchants, for only those whom the people patronize can afford to remain in business. The man who does not "play fair" will, sooner or later, be found out and forced to quit. The honest merchant who knows his business and sticks to it is bound to succeed.

This community is fortunate in having its mercantile business in the hands of high class men. No finer body of business men can be found anywhere in the world than those with whom our people have the privilege of dealing daily.

THE BEGINNING OF A BANK-NOTE

Little Marcia's baby dress though made of the finest linen was ultimately worn threadbare. One day it landed in the rag bag and was sold to the junk dealer. When the rag sorter touched the discarded garment he detected in a flash the fine quality of the flax and set it aside for a journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Eventually it became legal tender—a bank-note. Just how is told in one of the beautiful booklets about Our Government which we are sending each month to those interested.

Just send us your name and address and you will receive a copy of every issue of the series without charge.

The bride was handsomely attired in a suit of navy blue tricotine with gray accessories. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Luther Martin and the groom is a son of G. W. Almond, deceased. After the ceremony the happy couple left for the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. A. Our best wishes go with them for a long life of happiness and prosperity. X.
